

It's essential to be able to say exactly what you want to say. As such, it is essential that you think about those people, places, things, or expressions that are most important to the person using the device. After exploring the vocabulary file and finding what words are pre-programmed, you may need to add words that are important to them.

Use this form as a brainstorming tool to help you personalize the vocabulary file.

Personal Information

Name: _____

Birthdate: _____

Age: _____

School Name: _____

Address: _____

People

 Include: family, friends, school staff, care takers, therapy staff

TIP:

Use the built in camera to take a picture of people to add to a button.

Leisure Items/Activities

 Include: toys, games, TV shows, movies, sports, books, sensory items

TIP:

Using symbols helps make connections to similar items around them.

Food and Drink

Places Include: community places, stores, restaurants, therapies

TIP:

Where do they go or where do they talk about going?

Medical Information Include: allergies, medications, common ailments

Pets

Other Favorites Include: calming objects, colors, social phrases

